

Lawrence Daley

email: hello@lawrencedaley.com

Exhibitions & Awards

Waste of Space (Brighton, May 2012)

Exhibited the piece (plant, chair, hose, dehumidifier) as part of the waste of space project. The project involved temporarily holding exhibitions in empty shops across Brighton to coincide with the fringe festival.

South Square Gallery (Thornton, December 2011)

Took part in Abort, Retry, Fail at South Squares gallery. The piece (plant, chair, hose, dehumidifier) was created specifically for this exhibition.

London Gallery West (London, July 2011)

This exhibition is intended as a 'best in show' and brings together a selection of work from graduates across the Media, Arts and Design department at the University of Westminster. This will include my lightboxes from notes on blankness.

University of Westminster Photography degree show (London, June 2011)

I showed a selection of images from the series notes on blankness. Each image was displayed on lightbox box on top of its' own stand. Installation shots from this exhibition are included in this submission.

More information: notesonblankness.com

What the F* is going on now? (Brighton, August 2010)

I produced a large scale outdoor installation. This will consisted of a single piece of string (approx 150m) strung across the grounds of Falmer Manor house.

Departure Gallery – All Systems Go (London, June 2010)

Exhibited as part of the group show All Systems Go. My contribution was a site-specific installation. A skylight in the gallery was photographed, printed life size and placed on the floor beneath the light.

Lawrence Daley

A Public View (Brighton, March 2010)

Staged the first a Public View event that saw photographs displayed on the street at 5 locations. I created a website to document and promote the project. I produced a map and other promotional materials to support the event. More information: apublicview.com

westPHOTO competition - Sustainability (London, January 2010)

Awarded 4th prize in the 3rd annual competition, exhibition held in Aminka P3 gallery.

Education

Brighton University – MA Fine Art (part time) 2011 - 2013

Westminster University - BA Photography (part time) 2007 – 2011 I graduated in June 2011 with a first class honours.

Voluntary Work

Brighton Photo Fringe 2011

Was part of the curatorial team for Brighton photo fringe. This involved selecting artists for the exhibition, organising events and the practicalities of making the show happen.

Zoom in Photography 2009

I volunteered on a community project in Clapham. Over the course of 6 weeks I assisted in teaching young people photography and video.